Song Inspiration

I Got A Home is inspired by my childhood growing up with my mother and two sisters. At the time I was not openly gay, although everyone around me thought I was. Some were ok with it, and some thought I was confused.

So I felt where I was living was not my home. Now that I am openly gay, I now feel I gotta home and I'm just fine, ain't that good news.

So for those who are living in an envionment where being yourself is looked down on and feel coming out is not a safe do it when you're ready and when you feel it is safe to do so.

Page 3

Chorus

I got a home and I'm just fine, ain't that good news
I got a home and I'm just fine, ain't that good news

Short Instrumental

Verse 1

Some people will say
You ain't got no place here
Do not let them
Get you down and out
Listen to your heart
And go where ya wanna go
You know, you'll be fine
And always have a home

Chorus

I got a home and I'm just fine, ain't that good news
I got a home and I'm just fine, ain't that good news

Verse 2

I once lived in place
That was not my home
Followed all the rules
And was well schooled
I never had a home
Till I spoke a mind of my own

Chorus

I got a home and I'm just fine, ain't that good news
I got a home and I'm just fine, ain't that good news

Verse 3

Nothing is better than
Having a place you can call home
Freely expressing who you are
Will make you feel
Stronger than you think you are

Chorus

I got a home and I'm just fine, ain't that good news

I got a home and I'm just fine, ain't that good news

Ain't that good news

Aint't that good news

Outro Chorus

Spread that good news

I got a home and I'm just fine, ain't that good news

(Peaceful Dramatic Ending)

Lead Vocal

I got a home and I'm just fine
